OC Partnership

Why does this matter to you?

Well here's why ...

- The opportunity for Running Start (junior year)
- Pre-College classes offered
- An opportunity for you to be on a college campus and experience the collaboration of having college and high school students sharing a campus

OLYMPIC COLLEGE

New Tech Network and Cedar High Collab

Five Grading and learning outcomes

1. Collaboration
 - a. Working with peers and teachers to create something
2. Agency
 - a. Learning through projects and activities that are meaningful to the students
3. Knowledge and thinking
 - a. Using sources to solve real world problems
4. Written communication
 - a. Communicating through writing
5. Oral communication
 - a. Teaching each other what may be valuable through a presentation

Project Based Learning

- ❑ Project based learning is a form of learning where you have a combination of 2 subject like math and science or P.E and Web design
- ❑ This gives a better understanding in real world situations and help relate the real world to the classroom.
- ❑ This also give opportunity for students to collaborate with each other and also learn how to work independently. (attendance is vital)
- ❑ This can also be used to create real world solutions to problems
- ❑ Project based learning can also help students create not only a problem solving way with others but also friendship and community

What earning credit looks like

- At Cedar High School you will earn 1.0 credits for each class when classes are combined
- Students will be taught through teacher designed projects and not just out of a textbook or using standard curriculum
- If a student completes all of their projects/courses in a year, you could earn 7.5 credits per year
- Students may also earn additional credits through Fuel Ed courses, Running Start, or other community partnerships
